LAND VALUES

Nothing has been more uncertain during the past five years as the value so be placed on land. In fact land has almost come to be looked upon as the poorest sort or security.

James Anthony Froude, the great historian, said: "No form of property gives to its owners as much consequence as land."

It should be borne in mind that is not a liquid asset, but rather a solid bare upon which our greatest wealth is based. A good farm is still a good farm regardless of what mortgagels upon it and regardless of whether or not the cash money available in a community is sufficient to liquidate the land at anything approaching it real value if it is put up at sale.

The land was there before the depression and it will be there long after the depression is forgotten.

And regardless of what it might bring on the auction block, your land is your home, with all the sentiment that goes with that word, and properly worked and cared for your land is your livelihood. Therefore, it should be your proudest possession.

The Times Virginian is in sympathy with the laboring people of America and we join with in seeking better working conditions, salaries as high as their industries will permit and hours giving them a margin of leisure for recreation and enjoyment of life.

The Times Virginian further recognizes that the strike is the legal resort of labor when it is denied these things.

However, this paper is not in sympathy with the present series of strikes in the nation and believes: FIRST, that labor is endangering the welfare of the prosperity of the nation; SECOND, that an impossible relief role is being built up for this winter; and THIRD that the administration should state publicky its policies inanswer to the frank charges of leftism.

For twelve months there have been unmistakable evidences pointing to the REALITY of tthe end of the depression. A few month back the myth of depression seemed definitely exploded. We actually believe that no one thing brought about this happy fact, many things helped and it was principally the swinging of the economic cycle. Now, the strikes are endangering the ground gained. Strikes cripple industry. They bite the hand that signs the pay roll. They damage the buying power of the country. When you take, for emaple, such conditions as existed in retail trade in Hopewell during its strike, and multiply them a thousand fold through out the nation, it is mute testimony to the ravages of the strike "organizers."

Secondly, it has been claimed that labor would never strike but for the presence in the background of that promise that no one in America shall go hungry.. It is a sad comment on American labor if the workers collectively take advantage of the sincere Christian charity of the taxpayers. America wants to live up to the promise that no one shall go hungry, but the tax payers don't like to be put in the position of financing striker through the relief rolls.

Thirdly, this paper is not in sympathy with the thirty hour week Holy Writ says: "Six days shall thou labor." We call loafing five days and 18 hours out of every seven days an actual social menace. Is labor foolish enough to believe that the worker can continue to draw pay checks unless the employer prospers? Can laborimagine that the company's extravaganzas. Warner's have dominated the musical film field for many years with their every new effort surpassing the last.

Joan Blondell heads the list of principals, playing the part of a gold digging chorine, while Dick Powell and Ruby Keeler provide the romantic interest. The other stars includ eZasu Pitts, who has a comedy role as Ruby's mother; Guy Kibbee in the role of her husband and Hugh Herbert as an eccentric millionaire who promises to leave them his fortune on condition that they prove to be of a fine moral fibre.

Kept Taking Cardui Until She Got Rid of the Severe Pains

When Mrs. Ida Hege, of Edinburg, Ind., was in a painful, run-down condition, she took Cardui, with the results she describes below: "I had just been what one might say discouraged, feeling miserable and all out of sorts. I remembered how Cardui helped my aunt. I sent for six bottles of Cardui and when I had taken them, I was much better and stronger. I did not suffer so much pain. I continued taking Cardui until I had taken nine bottles. I do not have the severe pains." . . . Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician.

Nerves Do they torture you by day? Keep you awake at night?
What is it that keeps hospitals open and doctors busy? NERVES.
What is it that makes your face wrinkled and makes you feel old? NERVES
Nine times out of ten it's NERVES that make you restless, worried, haggard.

Nerves Do they make you Cranky, Blue--give you Nervous Indigestion, Nervous Headache?
When nerves are over-taxed, you worry over trifles, find it hard to concentrate, can't sit still. Nerve Strain brings on Headache.
Nervous people often suffer from Indigestion. There may be absolutely nothing wrong with the organs of digestion, but the Nerves are not on the job to make the organs do their work properly.

Nerves Do they interefere with your work; ruin your pleasure; drive away your friends?
You're cheating yourself and the man who pays you if you work when your NERVES are not normal.
You can't have a good time when you are nervous. You can't make or keep friends when you are keyed up and irritable. You may excuse yourself, but to others you are just a plain crank.

State Finances In Good Shape

Richmond, Sept. 22.- The Commonwealth of Virginia occupies an enviable position, financially, according to a chart prepared by A. B. Gathright, assistent comptroller and just released from the office of E. R. Combs, state comptroller, in which areshown revenues and expenditures for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1934, and the condition o fthe treasury as at that date. While many of the states are burdened with accumulated deficits, running into many millions of dollars, Virginia closed her last fiscal year with a deficit of only $235,268.00, the revenues and expenditures of all general and special funds being considered together.

Total revenues received into the treasury during the year amounted to $42,899,766.00. Total expenditures made for all purposes amounted to $44,987,272.00. The excess of expenditures over current revenue collections is $2,087,506.00 This excess absorbed entirely the surplus of $1,852,247.00 with which the fiscal year was begun, July 1, 1933, and produced a deficit of $235,258.00

Revenues received from direct taxation amount to $822,252,346.00 or 52.10 per cent of the total from all sources. The tax on motor vehicle fuel produced $11,759,749, or 27.41 per cent of the total. Motor vehicle and chauffeur licenses amounted to $4,942,776.00 or to 11.52 per cent of the total. These two sources of revenue produced approximately 39 per cent of all revenue received by the state. And to this the road funds received from the federal government amounting to $4,434,867.00, we find that approximately 49 per cent of all revenues received during the last fiscal year was for roads and and maintenance.

Texas Lady Tells How Black-Draught Laxative Helps All Her Family

Here's how Black-Draught fills the needs of a family laxative in the home of Mrs. J. S. Stoker, Fort Worth, Texas: "The grown-ups in my family," she writes, "have always taken powdered Thedford's Black-Draught for biliousness, headaches and other ailments (due to constipation) and found it a reliable remedy. I was very pleased when I saw Syrup of Black-Draught advertised. I bought it and gave it to my little daughters, ages 6 and 4. They needed something to cleanse their systems and Syrup of Black-Draught worked well." . . . Your druggist sells this reliable laxative in both forms. "Children like the Syrup."

You ride better..you drive better..you feel better in a
Knee Action CHEVROLET

THE Ownership Test is simplicity itself. Chevrolet, through any of its dealers, will gladly lend you a new car. You then drive it over the same routes and in the same way you drive every day. Judge the car by what it does—take the family along and get their comments. When the ride is over you will know the truth about Chevrolet's fine riding qualities, about its remarkable handling ease, about its speed and dash, and great economy, because the car itself can give you nothing but the facts. Chevrolet invites you to make this test because Chevrolet is confident that you will like the 1934 car—the freedom from jolts that Knee-Action brings—the restfulness of shock-proof steering—the deep-cushioned comfort and luxurious appointments of the big Fisher body—the power and getaway of an 80-horsepower engine—the smooth, sure action of weatherproof, cable-controlled brakes—the wonderfully refreshed feeling you enjoy when you are through. In fact, Chevrolet believes that the Ownership Test will prove to you complete satisfaction that the low-priced Chevrolet is the car for you and yours.
